Topic: Contribution of rural women in eradication of poverty.

Organised by: Women Cell, HAAC in association with Department of Rural Development, University of Science and Technology (Meghalaya)

Key note Speaker: Dr. Papiya Dutta, Associate Professor, Deptt. of Rural Development, USTM

As part of the MoU, a webinar was organised by the Women Cell of the HAAC in association with Department of Rural Development, University of Science and Technology (Meghalaya) under the chairmanship of Dr. Mamun Azam Barbhuyan, Principal of the college. The convener of the Women Cell Dr. Kabita Devi briefed the objectives of the webinar to the participant. The key note speaker: Dr. Papiya Dutta, Associate Professor, Deptt. of Rural Development, USTM has problems and prospects and contribution of women in eradicating poverty from the society by using different slides.

Despite poor network, about 54 students and teachers of the college participated and interacted in the discussion. Towards the end of the webinar, the Principal has thanked key note speaker and our student participants for their patients hearing.

Major outcome:

(a) Participants come to know the actual role of a woman in reducing the extent of poverty.

(b) Education, health care and economic self-dependency of women are the key elements to be ensured for wiping out poverty.

(c) More and more migration of rural women to cities and urban areas may be reduced by providing income generating sources in rural areas.
